

Christ's Hospital School – Factsheet

The Elac Christ's Hospital school centre is in an enviable location, close to the major London airports and within one hour of the center of London, perfect for groups who want to explore the Capital. The school is located in the heart of the countryside in West Sussex, surrounded by woodland and acres of fields. It has a rich history dating back hundreds of years, which is reflected in the architecture of the red brick buildings. The school also has fantastic facilities for academic, social as well as indoor and outdoor activities.
